

Declaration regarding electronic publications on Emporion

Last Name, First Name: _____

E-Mail: _____

Affiliation: _____

Title of data publication: _____

I hereby permit the operating facilities of the research data repositiorium Emporion the indefinite and non-exclusive (simple) usage rights to the above-mentioned work free of charge. I likewise grant Emporion the right to long-term electronic storage, reproduction and dissemination (as a digital open access publication available on the internet free of charge) of this work and any supplementary formal and textual descriptive data which I provide. In the course of making it available to the public, third parties are permitted the further use and dissemination of published Emporion content for exclusively scientific or private purposes (§§ 53, 60c, 60d UrhG), provided that no further rights are granted via transfer of an Open Content License. Emporion's operating facilities may – especially for purposes of digital long-term archiving – carry technical changes in formatting of data provided by me, and they may also do this for purposes of compliance with the submission guidelines of the German National Library regarding online publications (§ 16 DNBG). All my remaining rights of use remain here unaffected.

Through my digital signature, I hereby confirm that I am entitled to grant the stipulated rights of use to the operating facilities of Emporion for the above-mentioned work, and that the publication of this work in Open Access neither impinges upon any third party rights, nor violates any legal regulations. I pledge to exempt the operating facilities of Emporion from any and all third party claims and confirm that I have received the permission of all involved in the creation of this publication for its use by Emporion according to the terms of this declaration. As the author of the work in question, I pledge to immediately inform the operating facilities of Emporion should claims of alleged or actual violations of third-party rights be made against me.
